

TEDDY IS FOR TAFT: NOT FOR HIMSELF

Will Not Allow His Name in Presidential Lists—Will Support His Friend.

Washington, June 6.—President Taft in his candidacy for the presidential nomination in 1912 will receive the unqualified indorsement of former President Theodore Roosevelt, which will be uttered just as cordially as it was prior to the campaign of 1908. This is the best political news Mr. Taft has received in many months and it comes to him in a manner that leaves no doubt as to its authenticity.

The information that Col. Roosevelt under no circumstances will allow his name to be presented to the Republican national convention was conveyed to the White House several days ago, but it did not become known until tonight. That Col. Roosevelt feels that the Taft administration should be continued was brought out partly as the result of a cordial greeting between the two men at the Cardinal Gibbons jubilee in Baltimore today.

May Not Take Stump.

Whether the Roosevelt approval of Mr. Taft's candidacy will go far enough to take the former president into the campaign as an active stump speaker is problematical, but that the force of his personality will be with the president is assured. This fact is not expected to prove pleasing to Republicans who have made no secret of their desire to bring Col. Roosevelt forward as a formidable rival for the 1912 nomination. Many of these Republicans no doubt will not abandon hope until Col. Roosevelt, in quoted statement, announces his position and thus breaks the silence concerning the administration which he has maintained since landing in New York on his return from his African hunt.

Brought by a Friend.

The information that Col. Roosevelt would be found aligned with the president rather than against him, was brought directly to Mr. Taft from Mr. Roosevelt by a common friend high in official life who, was connected with both the Roosevelt and Taft administrations in a capacity that enabled him to gain and retain the confidence, in fact the warm personal friendship of both men. The meeting at Baltimore between the president and Roosevelt was only incidental to the Cardinal Gibbons jubilee, but it was an incident that awakened the political interest of the senators and congressmen and others in official life who saw the two men together. They met first in the reception room in the Fifth regiment armory, where the jubilee celebration was held. They talked together there for ten minutes. They shook hands with old friends; they chatted, laughed and behaved just as they used to do when Roosevelt was in the White House and Mr. Taft was secretary of war. They carried the spirit of friendliness up to the platform and sitting side by side they conversed in undertones through much of the afternoon.

Mr. Roosevelt reached Baltimore before the president, and was waiting for him at the armory.

Friends Once More.

"Hello, Mr. President," said he in the high pitched voice that Washington used to know so well.

"I am so glad to see you. I want to inquire about Mrs. Taft."

"Hello, Theodore," replied the president. "How are you?"

Shortly after Mr. Roosevelt was taken aside by the president. The two men were together about 10 minutes beyond ear range of any other person. Afterwards it was said that they "talked about Mrs. Taft's health."

The president invited the colonel to come to Washington on June 19 to be his guest in the White House at his silver wedding anniversary. Mr. Roosevelt said he would try to manage it. As he had to return immediately to New York from Baltimore Mr. Roosevelt declined an invitation to be the president's guest here tonight. The president arrived in Washington at 7 o'clock.

After the meeting broke up both men walked over to congratulate Cardinal Gibbons. After he had shaken the prelate's hand the president put out his hand to the colonel.

OLD BOARD APPEARS.

In Response to Summons of New Commission—Vouchers Demanded Also Brought.

Columbia, June 6.—"The appearance of every member of the old commission before the new dispensary commission today, in response to the summons of the new commission to appear and bring the vouchers, was the only distinguishing feature of today's session. The vouchers were brought and an agreement was reached by which the old commission will not have to produce them. But a short examination of these vouchers. The old commission's accountant, Mr. J. L. Thorpe, will represent the former commission in this matter.

The new commission's accountant is Mr. E. B. Wilson, who is now examining these records.

As to Transfer of Funds.

The commission held sessions early this afternoon and tonight. There was no announcement from the night session, except that very probably something will turn up tomorrow. Mr. J. V. Wallace, of Charleston, chairman pro tempore, presided over the sessions today.

The commission stated tonight that nothing has yet been done in the matter of the transfer of the $25,000 from the local bank to other banks. The letter from State Treasurer Jennings will probably be taken up tomorrow. In this letter it is pointed out that four of the five banks named are not State depositories.

The old commission in toto, as follows, appeared today: W. J. Murray, the ex-chairman; John McSweeney, Timmonsville; J. Steele Brice, Chester; Avery Patton, Greenville, and A. N. Wood, Gaffney. The members residing out of town were able to return this afternoon, owing to the compromise reached. The new commission insisted upon the production of the records, so, from its standpoint, there was no compromise. The word "compromise" is used, as it expresses the effect of the agreement reached today by which the vouchers are turned over for inspection without the old commission's losing possession, and with the expert accountant representing the former commission.

Considerable Argument.

There was considerable argument over the voucher matter. Attorneys Stevenson and Belser appeared for the members of the old commission. Of the new commission, the following members are present: John V. Wallace, Charleston; B. Frank Kelley, Bishopville; Fred H. Dominick, Newberry; and Thomas F. Brantley, Orangeburg. The commission, through its accountant and the members themselves, are engaged in examining the vouchers which were the cause of the recent contempt proceedings against Dr. Murray.

The old commissioners presented expense bills for their services as witnesses, the suggestion being made that they be paid regular civil witnesses' per diem and mileage. The commission again meets tomorrow at 10 o'clock.

NOTICE TO TAX DELINQUENTS.

Hon. Jno. L. Epps, county treasurer, has placed in my hands executions for the collection of delinquent taxes for the year 1910.

The law imposes upon me the duty to levy and collect this tax at once. This is to notify all persons who have not paid their taxes that they may save cost by coming to me and paying the same promptly. The number of executions this year is large, and I urge those who have not paid to attend to it at once.

CERTIFICATE RE-EXTENDING CHARTER.

Treasury Department, Office of Comptroller of the Currency, Washington, D. C., May 6, 1911.

Whereas, by satisfactory evidence presented to the undersigned, it has been made to appear that "The National Bank of Newberry," located in the town of Newberry, in the County of Newberry, and State of South Carolina, has complied with all the provisions of the act of congress "to enable National Banking Associations to extend their corporate existence, and for other purposes," approved July 12, 1882, as amended by the act approved April 12, 1902.

Now, therefore, I, Willis J. Fowler, Deputy and Acting Comptroller of the Currency, do hereby certify that "The National Bank of Newberry," located in the Town of Newberry, in the County of Newberry and State of South Carolina, is authorized to have succession for the period specified in its amended articles of association: namely, until close of business on May 6, 1931.

In testimony whereof witness my hand and Seal of office this (Seal) sixth day of May, 1911.

WILLIS J. FOWLER,
Deputy and Acting Comptroller of the Currency.

Thirty Years Together.

Thirty years of association—think of it. How the merit of a good thing stands out in that time—or the worthlessness of a bad one. So there's no guesswork in this evidence of Thos. Ariss, Concord, Mich., who writes: "I have used Dr. King's New Discovery for 30 years, and its the best cough and cold cure I ever used." Once it finds entrance in a home you can't pry it out. Many families have used it forty years. It's the most infallible throat and lung medicine on earth. Unequaled for lagrippe, asthma, hay-fever, croup, quinsy or sore lungs. Price 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Wm. E. Pelham & Son.

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, as administrators of the personal estate of A. J. Gibson, deceased, will make a final settlement of the guardianship estate of Nina B. Gibson, minor, on the 19th day of June 1911, at 11 o'clock a. m., in the office of the Probate Judge for Newberry county, and immediately thereafter apply for a discharge of said estate by reason of said guardianship.

FISHING FOR BUSINESS

THE first need of those who Fish for Business is Good Bait. The best Bait is Good Advertising. The Printer is the ultimate interpreter of Advertising, and the Fishing Quality of your Advertising depends largely upon the Kind of Bait he puts into your Printing. Will the Fish you are after bite when they see the Bait? That is the important question.

Every sort of Printing a Business Man uses should advertise his business—the Card, the Billhead, all kinds of Announcements, as well as the Catalog and Newspaper Advertising. Every piece of printing should have something on it that will make the Buyer take Notice, Stop and Read. When this is accomplished you are on the road to getting More Business.

Are not the general run of Cards, Circulars, local Advertisements, Billheads, etc., which reach you very much alike? Do you not read and forget, or, through being unattractive, merely throw aside? But here and there the printing that reaches you has something to it that Holds your Eye, Excites your Interest, Compels you to Read, and having Read you Cannot Forget. This was not Accidental. That Printing was prepared specially to get YOU to Read it. That is the Kind of Printing that has made Thousands Rich—Advertising that Pays. There are as many Grades of Effectiveness in Printing as in boots and shoes and clothing. If you pay for Shoddy Clothes you get them, and no matter how Cheap they are they will always be a Bad Bargain.

If you have your Printing done by us our Printer will put Good Bait into the Printing—Original and new Attention Arresters, Eye Catchers and Business Attractors. We are equipped for all kinds of Commercial and Job Printing.
